

MARIANN RIGÓ

Central European University, Department of Economics
1051 Budapest
Nádor u. 11.
Hungary
Phone: +36 1 3273233
Mobile: +36 20 4362198
rigom@ceu.hu

(May 2008)

EDUCATION

- Economics PhD Program, Central European University, Budapest (PhD candidate since 2006)
Field of interest: labor economics
Advisor: John Earle
- MA in Economics, Central European University, Budapest (2004)
- MSc in Business Administration, Corvinus University of Budapest (2002)

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

- Merit based scholarship, Economics Department, CEU (2003 – present)
- Special prize at the Academic Student Conference, Investigation of student loan schemes (2002)
- Third prize at the Academic Student Conference, Financing higher education (2001)
- ERASMUS scholarship, University of Greenwich (2001)

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Research Assistant, CEU Labor Project (2006 – present)
- Assistant, Ministry of Finance, Research Department (Sept 2005 – March 2006)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Teaching Assistant, Microeconomic Theory, CEU (2005, 2007)
- Teaching Assistant, Mathematics, CEU (2007)
- Teaching Assistant, Microeconomics, Corvinus University of Budapest (2003, 2004)

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Member of Local Organizing Committee, CAED International Research Conference (2008)

PUBLICATIONS

- “Increases in the minimum wage in Hungary, 2001-2006” (with Dóra Benedek, Ágota Scharle, Péter Szabó), Ministry of Finance, Working Paper No. 16, January 2006.

PRESENTATIONS

- “Estimating Union – Non-union Wage Differential in Hungary”, CAED 2008 conference presentation.

WORK IN PROGRESS

“Estimating Union – Non-union Wage Differential in Hungary”

SKILLS

- Languages: Hungarian (native), English (fluent), German (advanced)
- Computer skills: Windows applications, STATA, Eviews, Visual Basic, GAUSS