

Profile

Annan Voskuil

Main Education:

University of Oslo: 2008 Doctor juris degree; University of Amsterdam: 1998 LLM; Cambridge University 1997 Law Diploma (Eur.Stud.); Norwegian School of Economics and Business Administration (NHH) 1990 Diploma Business English; BA Modern Languages 1989 Trieste University.

Special Courses inter alia: Nordem Training Course Human Rights Monitoring and Investigation 2000; Hague Academy of International Law 1999 and 1997; Training Common Law Litigation Methods (by lawyers of the Iran-US Claims Tribunal) 1995-1996; Edinburgh University and James Boswell Institute Utrecht LEAP course 1995; Constitutional Law Training (NL Student Parliament) 1993-1994.

Main Work Experience:

Law clerk for the prosecution service ICTY 1998-1999; Researcher and legal consultant 2000-2009 (consultancies include projects for various Dutch and Norwegian government departments, the Inter-American Development Bank and private enterprises). Currently Dutch law consultant for an engineering corporation.

Other work experience inter alia: Doctoral research Oslo University; teaching, (mainly international labour law and human rights, in particular the rights of indigenous peoples), organising an international conference on humanitarian law, member of the editorial board (one year term) and referee Norwegian Journal of Human Rights; member of the Board of the Law Faculty (two academic years).